What did delegates say about Actuaries for Lawyers' seminar series in 2025?

Paul's ability to deliver training on such complex issues in a way that keeps the delegates engaged and help them with their understanding of the issues is excellent. Solicitor, Newcastle

Pensions are complex and Paul Windle manages to make it easily digestible, using case examples, visual charts and in depth explanations. Solicitor, Colchester

Really useful insight into pensions and how to approach PODE reports in practice. Solicitor, Cambridge

I always love coming to Paul's seminars - gives me confidence that my knowledge is up to date and that I am aware of anything important. Financial Advisor, Cambridge

CPD

Where your regulatory body requires that the number of CPD hours of learning are recorded, both the “Pensions on Divorce – Current Issues 2026 and Practical Application, Parts 1 and 2 seminars will each qualify for a maximum of 3 hours 15 minutes CPD. Attendance at both seminars will therefore qualify for a maximum of 6 hours 30 minutes of CPD. Regulatory bodies for professionals working with pensions as part of divorce settlements all require that individuals maintain their ongoing competence, reflect on their current practice and identify their learning and development needs. Regulatory bodies covering professionals for whom attendance at a pensions on divorce seminar might provide useful CPD include:

- ▶ The Solicitors Regulation Authority
- ▶ The Bar Council (both the New and Established Practitioner Programmes)
- ▶ CILEX
- ▶ The Family Mediation Council
- ▶ The Chartered Institute of Insurance
- ▶ The Institute and Faculty of Actuaries
- ▶ The Pensions Management Institute

SEMINAR FORMAT

- ▶ Focused on practical application rather than academic theory
- ▶ Relaxed format where questions about existing cases are encouraged
- ▶ Opportunity to discuss the most appropriate ways of dealing with pensions with fellow family practitioners
- ▶ Helps you to better understand problem areas involving pensions and to benefit from the experience of others when advising on your cases
